

Individual Membership Application

The North Carolina Preservation Consortium (NCPC) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving collections in our state's libraries, museums, archives, and historic sites. Individual membership is open to professionals working in collection institutions and organizations or private practice, faculty teaching in a collection discipline at a college or university, and retired collection professionals. Dues are $25.00 annually. Benefits of membership include reduced registration fees for workshops and conferences, and eligibility to serve on NCPC committees and the board of directors.

Yes, I would like to join NCPC as an individual member.
