

Student Membership Application

The North Carolina Preservation Consortium (NCPC) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving collections in our state's libraries, museums, archives, and historic sites. Student membership is open to individuals enrolled in a college or university graduate program in archaeology, archives, historic preservation, library science, museum studies, maritime studies, public history or other collection based discipline. Student dues are $10.00 annually. Benefits of membership include reduced registration fees for workshops and conferences, and eligibility to serve on NCPC committees.

Yes, I would like to join NCPC as an individual member.
